CORAM : DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.
9th April 2007.

P.C.:

Since a settlement between the parties has not been possible, the Summons for Judgment is taken up by consent on Board for hearing. Counsel appearing on behalf of the Plaintiff and the Defendant have been heard at length.

At the conclusion of the arguments, Counsel appearing on behalf of the Defendant states on instructions of the Constituted Attorney of the Defendant who is present before the Court that within a period of 8 weeks from today, the Defendant shall deposit the principal amount of the invoices viz., Rs.4,30,000/- with the Prothonotary and Senior Master. The amount upon deposit shall be invested in a fixed deposit of a Nationalised Bank to be renewed from time to time during the pendency of the suit. The Defendant shall be granted leave to defend, subject to the condition of the aforesaid deposit.

The Summons for Judgment is accordingly disposed of.
